2021 YEAR IN REVIEW

Picnic in the Park & Annual Meeting - We had a fun picnic at the RFL Community Park with the annual meeting in the RFL Community Associations building.(POA)

Tours - We were successful in offering three tours, a Geology of tour of Livermore with Roberts Ranch, Phantom Canyon at the Nature Conservancy and the Lower Poudre Canyon including Mishawaka.

Programs - We offered a Zoom Program on the Pandemics History in Northern Colorado and two programs that were well attended in the POA, one on the CCC Camp in RFL & Colorado Alabaster Industry.

Membership - 130 of you joined this year helping us with historical projects.

Merchandise - Participated in two Craft Fairs this year selling Rada Cutlery and other merchandise.

Website - Thanks to Gordon Nuttall, he actively adds new information as it comes in.

Walking Tour of Red Feather Lakes Village Signage - We provided pamphlets to active businesses for distribution.

Robinson Cabin - Open throughout the summer months with volunteers during craft fairs.

Robinson Cabin Landscaping - All equipment is placed on pads with walkways and signage completed.

Other Activities - Led a walking tour of RFL for the Girl Scouts and gave a Power Point presentation to a Fort Collins Questers Group. We also partner with the Red Feather Lakes Community Library on programs
