

HISTORIC ENTRANCE TO RED FEATHER LAKES 1928

The entrance and clubhouse to Red Feather Lakes were built in 1928 when hopes were high for the success of the recreational community. The building was demolished for salvage for World War 2 in the 1940's. The entrance gate house was moved to Alpine Lodge where it still stands.

Designated by Red Feather Historical Society