

HALFACRE HOUSE

Built in the early 1900's by Henry Halfacre. Originally had 2 rooms with others added including a tack room since people who traveled would keep their horses in the pasture where the RFL Community Park is today. Later on it was a hangout for the kids in the area.

Designated by Red Feather Historical Society