

Carol Brennan - I Remember When

As a child in the early 50's, we would get our water at Worley's well. We had cream cans to carry the water, and once my dad got the water coming he would let me pump the handle. I thought that was very exciting.

Carol Brennan