

ALPINE LODGE

The property was owned by Jimmy O'Rorke on which he had several cabins. He sold the property to Ray Higley & Gene Barker. The Metzler family originally built the lodge and Ray & Gene ran it. The Lodge burned down February 1971.

Emma and Art Grauberger purchased the lodge property from Ray Higley & the motel part from Gene Barker. Emma and Art made all the trailer sites and rented out Jimmy's cabins.

Designated by Red Feather Historical Society