

DAV HALL 1920s

The DAV Hall was built for WWI disabled veterans overlooking Dowdy Lake. The community got to have it after WWII, so they had potluck dinners and dances including square dancing. Booze was not allowed but there wasn't anything said about it being in cars. All the old timers, ranchers and people came out on Saturday night and had potluck dinner and dancing. Old Ben Scott played a banjo and someone played a piano.

Designated by Red Feather Historical Society

<https://redfeatherhistoricalsociety.org/>